English: Practice Section (5 mins)

Reading Comprehension

Read this passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow.

The Young Thatcher at Work

1. In the room from which this cheerful blaze proceeded, he beheld a girl seated on a willow chair, and busily occupied by the light of the fire, which was ample and of wood. With a bill-hook in one hand and a leather glove, much too large for her, on the other, she was making spars, such as are used by thatchers, with great rapidity.

5. She wore a leather apron for this purpose, which was also much too large for her figure. On her left hand lay a bundle of the straight, smooth sticks called spar-gads – the raw material of her manufacture; on her right, a heap of chips and ends – the refuse – with which the fire was maintained; in front, a pile of the finished articles. To produce them she took up each gad, looked critically at it from end to end, cut it

10. to length, split it into four, and sharpened each of the quarters with dexterous blows, which brought it to a triangular point precisely resembling that of a bayonet.

Read the above practice passage carefully and answer the following questions. Mark the correct answer on the provided answer sheet by choosing one of the options from A-E.

1 What does the word "spars" most nearly mean in the context of the passage?

A Wooden sticks used for thatching

B The firewood used to fuel the fire

C A type of clothing

D A tool for cutting

E A type of plant used in construction

2 What does the description of the girl wearing a leather glove that is too large for her suggest about her character?

A She is careless with her tools.

B She is working quickly and without attention to detail.

C She is inexperienced and not used to the task.

D She is skilled but still growing into her work.

E She is uncomfortable with her task

In the following sentences, on each line there is either one capital letter or punctuation mistake, or there is no mistake. Find the group of words with the mistake in it and mark its letter on the answer sheet. If there is no mistake, mark 'N'.

Example

"Did you hear that" she whispered in her ears.

A   B   C   D   E
The answer is B because a question mark is needed after "that?" to correctly indicate a question within the direct speech. The sentence is asking a question, so the punctuation must reflect this. None of the other words in the sentence require punctuation corrections, making B the only valid answer.

Now try the practice question below. Work out the correct answer and mark it on the answer sheet.

3   It's always been Toms dream to explore the world's remote locations.

In the following sentences, on each line there is either one spelling mistake or none. Find the group of words with the mistake in it and mark its letter on the answer sheet. If there is no mistake, mark 'N'.
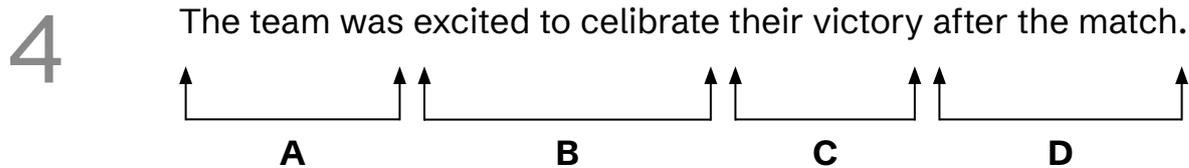

Example

She couldn't beleive how quickly the day passed during site visit.

A   B   C   D

The answer is B because "beleive" is incorrect in this context. The correct word should be "believe," as it follows the common spelling rule "i before e except after c." The word "beleive" is a common misspelling, but the correct form has "i" before "e." The rest of the sentence is correct, so B is the valid answer.

Now try the practice question below. Work out the correct answer and mark it on the answer sheet.

4   The team was excited to celibrate their victory after the match.

A   B   C   D

Identify the best word or group of words to complete the following sentences, so that it makes sense and is written in correct English. You should choose one of the following answers (A - E) and mark its letter on the answer sheet.

Example

The chef prepared the soup

beside	beyond	inside	beneath	with the vegetables in the pot to give it flavor.

The answer is E because "with" indicates that the vegetables are used together with the soup to add flavor. "Beside" implies placement next to the soup, which isn't fitting. "Beyond" suggests something further, which doesn't work here. "Inside" would suggest the vegetables are hidden, but they are being added, not placed inside. "Beneath" implies under the soup, which is incorrect. Therefore with, option E is the only valid answer.

Now try the practice questions below. Work out the correct answer and mark it on the answer sheet.

5   The hikers walked

inside	between	along	toward	under the forest trail, enjoying the fresh air and sunlight.

6 They reached the clearing after an hour,

and	because	although

extremely	but

excited to see the view.

This is the end of the English practice section.

*You have 25 minutes to complete this section. There are 25 questions. This section is marked.

Reading Comprehension

Read this passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow.

The Great Gatsby

Our narrator, Nick, has recently moved to a town on the edge of New York.
In this passage he describes the landscape of the town on the edge of the river.

1. "How do you get to West Egg village?" he asked helplessly.

   I told him. And as I walked on I was lonely no longer. I was a guide, a pathfinder, an original settler. He had casually conferred on me the freedom of the neighborhood.

   And so with the sunshine and the great bursts of leaves growing on the trees—just
5. as things grow in fast movies—I had that familiar conviction that life was beginning over again with the summer.

   There was so much to read for one thing and so much fine health to be pulled down out of the young breath-giving air. I bought a dozen volumes on banking and credit and investment securities and they stood on my shelf in red and gold like new
10. money from the mint, promising to unfold the shining secrets that only Midas and Morgan and Maecenas knew. And I had the high intention of reading many other books besides. I was rather literary in college—one year I wrote a series of very solemn and obvious editorials for the "Yale News"—and now I was going to bring back all such things into my life and become again that most limited of all specialists,

15. the "well-rounded man." This isn't just an epigram—life is much more successfully looked at from a single window, after all.

It was a matter of chance that I should have rented a house in one of the strangest communities in North America. It was on that slender riotous island which extends itself due east of New York and where there are, among other natural curiosities,

20. two unusual formations of land. Twenty miles from the city a pair of enormous eggs, identical in contour and separated only by a courtesy bay, jut out into the most domesticated body of salt water in the Western Hemisphere, the great wet barnyard of Long Island Sound. They are not perfect ovals—like the egg in the Columbus story they are both crushed flat at the contact end—but their physical resemblance must

25. be a source of perpetual confusion to the gulls that fly overhead. To the wingless a more arresting phenomenon is their dissimilarity in every particular except shape and size.

I lived at West Egg, the—well, the less fashionable of the two, though this is a most superficial tag to express the bizarre and not a little sinister contrast between

30. them. My house was at the very tip of the egg, only fifty yards from the Sound, and squeezed between two huge places that rented for twelve or fifteen thousand a season. The one on my right was a colossal affair by any standard—it was a factual imitation of some Hôtel de Ville in Normandy, with a tower on one side, spanking new under a thin beard of raw ivy, and a marble swimming pool and more than forty

35. acres of lawn and garden. It was Gatsby's mansion. Or rather, as I didn't know Mr. Gatsby it was a mansion inhabited by a gentleman of that name. My own house was an eye-sore, but it was a small eye-sore, and it had been overlooked, so I had a view of the water, a partial view of my neighbor's lawn, and the consoling proximity of millionaires—all for eighty dollars a month.

Read the above passage carefully and answer the following questions. Mark the correct answer on the provided answer sheet by choosing one of the options from A-E.
