Reading Comprehension

Read this passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow.

The Borrowers

1. Mrs May was old, her joints were stiff, and she was – not strict exactly, but she had that inner certainty which does instead. Kate was never ‘wild’ with Mrs May, nor untidy, nor self-willed; and Mrs May taught her many things besides crochet: how to wind wool into an egg-shaped ball; how to run- and- fell and plan a darn; how to tidy a drawer and to lay, like a blessing, above the contents, a sheet of rustling tissue against the dust.
- 5.

‘Why so quiet, child?’ asked Mrs May one day, when Kate was sitting hunched and idle upon the hassock. ‘What’s the matter with you? Have you lost your tongue?’

10. ‘No,’ said Kate, pulling at her shoe button, ‘I’ve lost the crochet hook . . .’ (they were making a bed-quilt – in woollen squares: there were thirty still to do), ‘I know where I put it,’ she went on hastily; ‘I put it on the bottom shelf of the book-case just beside my bed.’

Read the above passage carefully and answer the following questions. Mark the correct answer on the provided answer sheet by choosing one of the options from A-E.

P1

What can you infer about the relationship between Mrs May and Kate?

- A Kate is afraid of Mrs May's strictness
- B Mrs May is Kate's grandmother
- C Kate respects Mrs May and follows her guidance
- D Kate avoids Mrs May whenever possible
- E Mrs May dislikes Kate's behaviour

P2

What does the description "to lay, like a blessing, above the contents, a sheet of rustling tissue against the dust" suggest?

- A Mrs May is deeply religious
- B Mrs May treats everyday tasks with care and reverence
- C Kate finds household tasks boring
- D The drawer contains valuable items
- E Mrs May is overly concerned with cleanliness

In the following sentences, on each line there is either one capital letter or punctuation mistake, or there is no mistake. Find the group of words with the mistake in it and mark its letter on the answer sheet. If there is no mistake, mark 'N'.

Example

She said Im going to the cinema tonight. Would you like to come along?

The answer is A because "Im" requires an apostrophe to correctly form the contraction of "I am." The apostrophe replaces the missing letter "a" in "am." None of the other words in the sentence require punctuation or capitalisation corrections, making A the only valid answer.

Now try the practice question below. Work out the correct answer and mark it on the answer sheet.

The museum closes early on wednesdays during the winter months of the year.

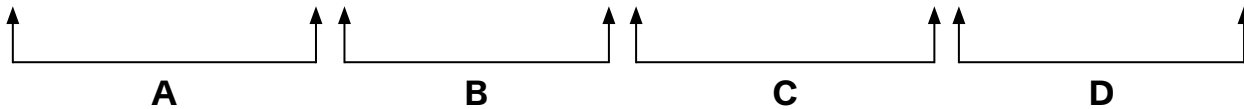

In the following sentences, on each line there is either one spelling mistake or none. Find the group of words with the mistake in it and mark the correct answer on the provided answer sheet. If there is no mistake mark 'N'.

Example

The journalist wrote an excellent article about the changing climate conditions.

The answer is B because "exellent" is incorrect in this context. The correct word should be "excellent," with a 'c' before the 'e' in the second syllable. "Excellent" means extremely good or of the highest quality. This word is commonly misspelled by omitting the 'c' that should appear before the second 'e'. The rest of the sentence is correct, so B is the only valid answer.

Now try the practice question below. Work out the correct answer and mark it on the answer sheet

P4

The gardener carefully pruned the roses and removed all the visable weeds.

Identify the best word or group of words to complete the following sentences, so that it makes sense and is written in correct English. You should choose one of the following answers (A - E) and mark its letter on the answer sheet.

Example

The ancient castle stood carefully

meticulously

on the misty hilltop, its stone walls telling stories of centuries past.

The answer is B because majestically best describes the imposing presence of an ancient castle. It captures the castle's grandeur, historical significance, and commanding position on the hilltop. Other options like "quietly" or "silently" fail to convey the castle's impressive nature, while "strongly" and "proudly" lack the specific sense of historical magnificence.

Now try the practice questions below. Work out the correct answer and mark it on the answer sheet.

P5

The ancient library's shelves were

lined with rare manuscripts from different civilisations.

P6

The young historian discovered that the document

keeping

significant information about the lost civilisation.

This is the end of the English practice section.

This section is marked.

Reading Comprehension

Read this passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow.

Harry's Uncle

In this passage, Harry introduces himself and his uncle. His uncle urgently needs his attention.

1. Looking back to all that has occurred to me since that eventful day, I am scarcely able to believe in the reality of my adventures. They were truly so wonderful that even now I am bewildered when I think of them.

5. My uncle was a German, having married my mother's sister, an Englishwoman. Being very much attached to his fatherless nephew, he invited me to study under him in his home in the fatherland. This home was in a large town, and my uncle a professor of philosophy, chemistry, geology, mineralogy, and many other ologies.

10. One day, after passing some hours in the laboratory—my uncle being absent at the time—I suddenly felt the necessity of renovating the tissues—i.e., I was hungry, and was about to rouse up our old French cook, when my uncle, Professor Von Hardwigg, suddenly opened the street door, and came rushing upstairs.

15. Now Professor Hardwigg, my worthy uncle, is by no means a bad sort of man; he is, however, choleric and original. To bear with him means to obey; and scarcely had his heavy feet resounded within our joint domicile than he shouted for me to attend upon him.

"Harry—Harry—Harry—"

I hastened to obey, but before I could reach his room, jumping three steps at a time, he was stamping his right foot upon the landing

"Harry!" he cried, in a frantic tone, "are you coming up?"

20. Now to tell the truth, at that moment I was far more interested in the question as to what was to constitute our dinner than in any problem of science; to me soup was more interesting than soda, an omelette more tempting than arithmetic, and an artichoke of ten times more value than any amount of asbestos.

25. But my uncle was not a man to be kept waiting; so adjourning therefore all minor questions, I presented myself before him.

30. He was a very learned man. Now most persons in this category supply themselves with information, as peddlers do with goods, for the benefit of others, and lay up stores in order to diffuse them abroad for the benefit of society in general. Not so my excellent uncle, Professor Hardwigg; he studied, he consumed the midnight oil, he pored over heavy tomes, and digested huge quartos and folios in order to keep the knowledge acquired to himself.

35. There was a reason, and it may be regarded as a good one, why my uncle objected to display his learning more than was absolutely necessary: he stammered; and when intent upon explaining the phenomena of the heavens, was apt to find himself at fault, and allude in such a vague way to sun, moon, and stars that few were able to comprehend his meaning. To tell the honest truth, when the right word would not come, it was generally replaced by a very powerful adjective.

Verbal Reasoning: Practice Section (5 mins)

In these questions, find the next two letters in the pattern. Each pair follows a rule based on their position in the alphabet. Identify the pattern for both letters and choose the next pair in the sequence.

Example

CE HI MM RQ [?]

A SU

B TU

C UV

D WU

E TT

The answer is WU. The first letter in each pair follows an increasing pattern: C, H, M, R moving forward by +5, +5, +5, +5. So, the next letter after R is W. The second letter also follows an increasing pattern: E, I, M, Q moving forward by +4, +4, +4, +4. So, the next letter after Q is U. Thus, the next pair after RQ is WU.

Now try these two practice questions and mark the correct option on the answer sheet.

The alphabet is here to help you with these questions.

In these questions, each word is written in a code. Find the pattern in the given code and apply it to find the correct code for the new word.

Example

If the code for CAKE is DBLF, what is the code for MILK?

A NJML B NJLK C NKML D NJLL E NKLL

The answer is NJML. In the code for CAKE → DBLF, each letter moves forward in the alphabet: C → D (+1), A → B (+1), K → L (+1), and E → F (+1). Using the same pattern for MILK, M → N (+1), I → J (+1), L → M (+1), and K → L (+1). Thus, the correct code for MILK is NJML.

Now try these two practice questions and mark the correct option on the answer sheet.

P3

If the code for SPOT is VSRW, what is the code for PLAY?

A SOCB B TPDB C SODB D TPCB E SODC

P4

If the code for BLUE is AJTC, what is the code for STAR?

A RRXP B KMUZ C RRZP D KMOV E LMVZ

In these questions, the given words can be rearranged to form a meaningful sentence. Label each word with a number to indicate its correct position, starting with 1 for the first word. Only one of the five answer choices correctly represents this order.

Example

library books the returned I

- A 4, 5, 2, 3, 1 B 5, 4, 3, 1, 2 C 1, 2, 5, 3, 4
D 2, 4, 5, 3, 1 E 5, 4, 2, 1, 3

The answer is 5, 4, 3, 1, 2. The correct sentence formed by rearranging the words is: I returned the library books. The numbers represent the correct order of words in the sentence, where 5 → I, 4 → returned, 3 → the, 1 → library, and 2 → books. By checking all answer choices, only 5, 4, 3, 1, 2 follows this order correctly, making it the correct answer.

Now try these two practice questions and mark the correct option on the answer sheet.

P5

In these questions, a word in capitals is missing three consecutive letters. These letters form a correctly spelled word. Choose the option that completes the word correctly so the sentence makes sense.

Example

The curious students watched the BRI[][][]ANT display at the science fair.

A GLI B LLI C TER D CKE E SHI

The answer is LLI. The missing three-letter word from BRI[][][]ANT is LLI. Completing the word as BRILLIANT makes a meaningful word that fits the sentence.

Now try these two practice questions and mark the correct option on the answer sheet.

P7

The teacher asked everyone to remain COM[][][]TELY silent during the exam.

A PLE B POL C PLO D PET E PON

P8

A NIC B NIF C NIS D NIV E NIL

In these questions, three of the five words are related in some way. Find the two words that do not belong with the other three.

Example

dolphin shark octopus sparrow eagle

A dolphin B shark C octopus D sparrow E eagle

The answer is Sparrow Eagle. 'Dolphin,' 'Shark,' and 'Octopus' are related because they all live in water/ocean environments. 'Sparrow' and 'Eagle' are birds that fly in the air, making them the two words that do not belong.

Now try these two practice questions and mark the correct option on the answer sheet.
