Reading Comprehension

Read this passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow.

Edward's Love for Gladys

1. Mr. Hungerton, her father, really was the most tactless person upon earth,—a fluffy, feathery, untidy cockatoo of a man, perfectly good-natured, but absolutely centered upon his own silly self. If anything could have driven me from Gladys, it would have been the thought of such a father-in-law. I am convinced that he really believed in his heart that I came round to the Chestnuts three days a week for the pleasure of his company, and very especially to hear his views upon bimetallism, a subject upon which he was by way of being an authority.
- 5.

- For an hour or more that evening I listened to his monotonous chirrup about bad money driving out good, the token value of silver, the depreciation of the rupee, and the true standards of exchange.
- 10.

"Suppose," he cried with feeble violence, "that all the debts in the world were called up simultaneously, and immediate payment insisted upon,—what under our present conditions would happen then?"

- I gave the self-evident answer that I should be a ruined man, upon which he jumped from his chair, reproved me for my habitual levity, which made it impossible for him to discuss any reasonable subject in my presence, and bounced off out of the room to dress for a Masonic meeting.
- 15.

- At last I was alone with Gladys, and the moment of Fate had come! All that evening I had felt like the soldier who awaits the signal which will send him on a forlorn hope; hope of victory and fear of repulse alternating in his mind.
- 20.

Read the above passage carefully and answer the following questions. Mark the correct answer on the provided answer sheet by choosing one of the options from A-E.

P1

Why does Edward visit the Chestnuts three days a week?

- A To discuss bimetallism with Mr Hungerton
- B Solely to see Gladys despite her father
- C To attend Masonic meetings
- D To enjoy Mr Hungerton's company
- E To debate economic theories

P2

Which literary device is used in "a fluffy, feathery, untidy cockatoo of a man"?

- A Simile
- B Personification
- C Metaphor
- D Oxymoron
- E Hyperbole

In the following sentences, on each line there is either one capital letter or punctuation mistake, or there is no mistake. Find the group of words with the mistake in it and mark its letter on the answer sheet. If there is no mistake, mark 'N'.

Example

I dont need to bring my umbrella today because the weather forecast says sunny.

The answer is A because "dont" requires an apostrophe to correctly form the contraction of "do not." The apostrophe replaces the missing letter "o" in "not." None of the other words in the sentence require punctuation or capitalisation corrections, making A the only valid answer.

Now try the practice question below. Work out the correct answer and mark it on the answer sheet.

After completing all my homework I watched television for an hour before bedtime.

In the following sentences, on each line there is either one spelling mistake or none. Find the group of words with the mistake in it and mark the correct answer on the provided answer sheet. If there is no mistake mark 'N'.

Example

The antique furniture was carefully restored to its original appearance by experts.

The answer is D because "appearence" is incorrect in this context. The correct word should be "appearance," with an 'a' before the 'n' rather than an 'e'. "Appearance" refers to the way something looks or seems to others. This word is formed from "appear" plus the suffix "-ance" and should maintain this spelling pattern. Many people incorrectly substitute an 'e' for the 'a' in the suffix. The rest of the sentence is correct, so D is the only valid answer.

Now try the practice question below. Work out the correct answer and mark it on the answer sheet

P4

The foriegn diplomat arrived yesterday for the international peace conference.

Identify the best word or group of words to complete the following sentences, so that it makes sense and is written in correct English. You should choose one of the following answers (A - E) and mark its letter on the answer sheet.

Example

The weekend camping trip quickly turned into towards across beyond under lined with rare manuscripts from different civilisations.

The answer is A because into perfectly shows how the camping trip changed from a normal trip to an unexpected adventure. "Towards" points in a direction, "across" means moving over space, "beyond" goes past a point, and "under" means beneath something. Into captures the exciting transformation of the camping experience in the wilderness.

Now work out the practice questions below. Work out the correct answer and mark it on the answer sheet.

P5

Mia and her friends packs checking organised prepared

P6

We need to set up camp quickly

This is the end of the English practice section.

English

You have 25 minutes to complete this section. There are 25 questions.
This section is marked.

Reading Comprehension

Read this passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow.

John Trenchard

In this passage, we are introduced to John Trenchard, who describes his childhood and the area in which he grew up.

1. My name is John Trenchard, and I was fifteen years of age when this story begins. My father and mother had both been dead for years, and I boarded with my aunt, Miss Arnold, who was kind to me in her own fashion, but too strict and precise ever to make me love her.
5. I shall first speak of one evening in the fall of the year 1757. It must have been late in October, though I have forgotten the exact date, and I sat in the little front parlour reading after tea. My aunt had few books; a Bible, a Common Prayer, and some volumes of sermons are all that I can recollect now; but the Reverend Mr. Glennie, who taught us village children, had lent me a story-book, full of interest and
10. adventure, called the Arabian Nights Entertainment. At last the light began to fail, and I was nothing loth to leave off reading for several reasons; as, first, the parlour was a chilly room with horse-hair chairs and sofa, and only a coloured-paper screen in the grate, for my aunt did not allow a fire till the first of November; second, there was a rank smell of molten tallow in the house, for my aunt was dipping winter candles on
15. frames in the back kitchen; third, I had reached a part in the Arabian Nights which tightened my breath and made me wish to leave off reading for very anxiousness of expectation. It was that point in the story of the 'Wonderful Lamp', where the false uncle lets fall a stone that seals the mouth of the underground chamber; and immures the boy, Aladdin, in the darkness, because he would not give up the lamp till he stood safe on the surface again.

This scene reminded me of one of those dreadful nightmares, where we dream we are shut in a little room, the walls of which are closing in upon us, and so impressed me that the memory of it served as a warning in an adventure that befell me later on. So I gave up reading and stepped out into the street. It was a poor street at best, though once, no doubt, it had been finer. Now, there were not two hundred souls in Moonfleet, and yet the houses that held them straggled sadly over half a mile, lying at intervals along either side of the road. Nothing was ever made new in the village; if a house wanted repair badly, it was pulled down, and so there were toothless gaps in the street, and overrun gardens with broken-down walls, and many of the houses that yet stood looked as though they could stand but little longer.

Verbal Reasoning

Instructions:

1. Do not turn over this page until instructed to do so.
2. There are two timed sections: practice and main section.
3. The test begins with a 5-minute practice section.
4. The practice section includes 10 questions.
 - The first question for each question type is solved with a detailed solution.
 - The remaining questions are for you to attempt.
5. The practice section is followed by the main questions.
6. Total time for the main questions is 20 minutes.
7. Work quickly and carefully through the questions.
8. If you finish early, go back and check your work.
9. This is a multiple-choice test. Each question carries 1 mark.

Verbal Reasoning: Practice Section (5 mins)

In these questions, four words are given, but only three of them have number codes. Each letter is assigned a number, and the codes may not appear in the same order as the words. Three of the four words are given in codes. Use this pattern to answer the questions.

Example

TAPE	STAR	PART	EAST
7354	3528	8573

What does 4873 mean?

A TAPE B STAR C PART D REST E ARTS

The answer is REST. Each number in the code represents a letter, and the same number always stands for the same letter. By analysing the codes 7354, 3528, and 8573 with their corresponding words STAR, TAPE, and EAST, we can determine that 4 = R, 8 = E, 7 = S, and 3 = T. Looking at these letter-to-number mappings, we can see that the code 4873 represents the letters REST. Thus, the correct word for 4873 is REST.

Now try these two practice questions and mark the correct option on the answer sheet.

SOLD	DARK	LEND	STAR
5693	7253	3841

P1

What is the code for RAKE?

A 4816 B 8416 C 4861 D 8461 E 6841

P2

What does 7246 spell?

A SOLD

B DARK

C LEND

D SORE

E RAKE

In these questions, find the number that will complete the sum correctly. The only operations that will be used are multiply, divide, add, and subtract.

Example

$$18 \times 2 - 6 = 42 \div 6 + 15 + [?]$$

A 8 B 10 C 15 D 20 E 25

The answer is 8. The sum on the left is $18 \times 2 - 6 = 36 - 6 = 30$. The right-hand side must equal 30. Since $42 \div 6 + 15 = 7 + 15 = 22$, adding 8 balances both sides. Thus, the missing number is 8.

Now try these two practice questions and mark the correct option on the answer sheet.

P3

$$15 \times 16 \div 4 + 2 = 16 \times 4 - [?]$$

A 3 B 2 C 4 D 6 E 8

P4

$$25 \times 3 - 15 = 72 \div 8 + [?]$$

A 45 B 50 C 51 D 55 E 60

In these questions, rearrange the given words to form the longest possible sentence. Then, find the word that is not needed.

Example

flowers bloom colourful gently sun the

A flowers B bloom C colourful D gently E sun

The answer is sun. The longest sentence that can be made is 'The colourful flowers bloom gently.' The word "sun" is extra, as it does not fit into the sentence, making it the superfluous word. Thus, the correct answer is sun.

Now try these two practice questions and mark the correct option on the answer sheet.

P5

children happy park play clock in the

A children B clock C park D play E happy

P6

the processes computer jumped smoothly data

A computer B processes C data D jumped E smoothly

In these questions, a four-letter word is hidden at the end of one word and the beginning of the next word. Find the pair of words that contains the hidden word.

Example

The extra illness spread quickly.

- A The extra B extra illness C illness spread
D spread quickly E The illness

The answer is extra illness. The hidden four-letter word is 'rail', formed by taking the last two letters of extra and the first two letters of illness. Thus, the pair of words that contains the hidden word is extra illness.

Now try these two practice questions and mark the correct option on the answer sheet.

P7

Coaches prepare advice for our team.

- A Coaches prepare B prepare advice C advice for D for our E our team

P8

Doing yoga in the park felt refreshing.

- A Doing yoga B yoga in C in the D the park E park felt

In these questions, find two words, that together make one correctly spelt word, without changing the order of the letters. The word that appears earliest in the group always comes first.

Example

hall space way hut road

A hall B way C space D road E hut

The answer is hallway. The word "hall" from the first group combined with "way" from the second group forms the compound word "hallway," which is a valid word.

Now try these two practice questions and mark the correct option on the answer sheet. Don't forget, you must mark two answer options on your answer sheet for each of these questions.
