Writing Plan and Sequencing	Comment	Check
Your writing must be well-structured and make sense. Planning will improve your writing significantly, so make sure you take time to plan effectively: Beginning: Does your opening statement tell us the name of the restaurant, its location, and give us basic details of the cuisine type? Does it give us some context, such as whether this is the first restaurant of its type? Does it offer your opinion of the experience? Does the first sentence hook the reader?	Planning is effective and includes rhetorical techniques to use. The opening statement tells us the name of the restaurant, its location, and gives us basic details of the cuisine type (vegan). We have context – London's first vegan pub.
Middle: This is where you develop your restaurant review with detailed information regarding food and atmosphere. Have you written at least two paragraphs, providing engaging and vivid details that bring the food and atmosphere in the restaurant to life? Have you continued to offer your opinion and the opinions of those in your dining group?	Vivid and engaging details describe the atmosphere (gastro pub) and food (vegan Mexican). Sensory description brings the scene to life. Personal opinions and the opinions of those in the dining group are offered.
End: Have you suggested any areas of improvement, if there are any? Have you told the reader the prices, and evaluated the value for money? Have you felt with a final evaluation and recommendation?	Areas of improvement (portion size) are mentioned. Value for money is covered. A final evaluation is given.
